Austin Foote's Latest Weekly Blog

February 11, 2013

Two weeks left of the regular season. Wow! I was recently reminded of how fast time passes when my professor announced that our mid-term test was next week. My first thought was, already? Are we really almost half way through my final semester as a Cedarville student and athlete? Time is fleeting and our lives are short no doubt. No wonder the Lord tells us to live everyday to its fullest. There is so much joy available to us through life in Him, but in all honesty little time to enjoy it. Whew, feel like I am about to start preaching so I will switch to a less somber note.

Our team continues to roll through our opponents. We have been playing our best basketball of the year. Defensively we have kept teams to a decent shooting percentage, turned the ball over less, and shared the ball really well. Oh, and we're finally shooting the ball well...could have used that a little earlier in the year. As I reminisce, I always wish we could have learned to play this well, as a team, earlier in the season. I actually hope that the teams that follow will learn to click with each other relatively quicker than we have. However, perhaps it is just the nature of the game where you continue to get better and better as time goes on. And you don't always want to be playing your best basketball at the beginning of the year because playing consistently well is hard to maintain. Your best play always wants to come during tournament time.

We have four more games until our conference tournament. If we succeed in beating our next two opponents then we will have solidified home court advantage during our conference tournament. Achieving smaller goals, such as home court advantage, has helped us keep our focus. Other semi-exciting news is that this weekend is Senior Night. It truly is a bittersweet understanding as this season comes to a close.

Well, hopefully two wins later we will be seeing you on the Foote side.

Austin Foote is a 6-foot senior guard from Castle Rock, Colorado. This is his fourth season of action with the Yellow Jackets. Austin is a sport management major.

Last Time Out

Another quick start was the catalyst for Cedarville as the Jackets grabbed sole possession of first place in the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with a 70-54 win over Trevecca Nazarene in the Callan Athletic Center on Li'l Sibs Saturday afternoon.

The home team scored the first seven points of the contest and never looked back. The bulge inflated to 31-11 in the first half and the Trojans could get no closer than 14 the rest of the way.

Zimmy Nwogbo totaled 17 points and eight rebounds to lead four players in double figures for the Yellow Jackets, 14-8 overall and 3-1 G-MAC. Marcus Reineke came off the bench with 13 points while Jason Cuffee and Brian Grant chipped in 11 apiece. Zach Brown handed out six assists.

Cedarville extended its winning streak to five in a row and avenged its lone conference setback. The Jackets were without four players during a 74-70 loss in Nashville on Jan. 7.

Trevecca Nazarene drops to 8-13 and 2-2.

Looking Ahead

The Wilberforce University Bulldogs make the short trip to Cedarville for the final regular season home game this Saturday, February 16. The non-conference contest is slated for a 7:30 p.m. tip-off. CU's six seniors will be recognized between games of the Lady Jacket/Yellow Jacket doubleheader.

The Yellow Jackets final two regular season games are on the road. Cedarville travels to Central State on Tuesday, February 19 for a key Great Midwest Athletic Conference battle. The game against the Marauders is scheduled for a 7:30 p.m. tip-off.

CU closes out the 2012-13 regular season with a non-league game in South Euclid, Ohio on Saturday, February 23 at Notre Dame College.

Head Coach Pat Estep

Pat Estep has been the head men's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2008-09 campaign. He has guided his alma mater to an average of 24 victories per season and four consecutive national tournament appearances.

The Yellow Jackets are coming off of a 23-9 performance in what was their NCAA Division II provisional year. They won the school's first NCCAA Championship banner in convincing fashion after entering the 2012 tournament as the No. 1 seed and winning their three games by an average of 18 points. Estep was tabbed NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished strong again in 2010-11 by winning eight of their last nine regular season games including the last five in a row. The Jackets were ranked as high as 14th in the NAIA Division II poll and finished at 20-13.

Cedarville won 16 of its last 18 games in 2009-10 to finish 26-9 and 14-2 in the American Midwest Conference as the league runner-up. The Yellow Jackets, who were rated as high as 8th in the national poll, later won the AMC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the national tournament.

Estep's inaugural campaign at the helm was full of memorable accomplishments. He guided the Yellow Jackets to a 27-4 overall record and a share of the AMC title with a 12-1 league mark. Cedarville was ranked as high as No. 1 in the country, finished in a tie for the No. 2 spot in the final poll, and advanced to the national tournament.

The Jackets assembled a number of school records which included a 14-game winning streak. They also wiped out all of the previous marks for defense.

Cedarville led the country in field goal percentage defense with opponents shooting just 37.9 percent. They also ranked second nationally by allowing a stingy 60 points per contest which was 10 points per game lower than the old school record.

Estep's leadership did not go unnoticed. He was voted the AMC Coach of the Year as well as the NCCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year.

Estep took on his current position after serving as an assistant coach for eight years under former head coach Ray Slagle. He played a key role during Slagle's successful tenure with the Yellow Jackets from 2000 to 2008.

Cedarville won 177 games during that timespan, averaged 24.1 wins over the last seven seasons, won three American Midwest Conference titles, and two AMC Tournament championships.

The Yellow Jackets made five trips to the NAIA Division II National Tournament where they never lost in the first round. They advanced to the semifinals once, the quarterfinals twice, and to the second round twice.

This is the first head coaching position for Estep. A 1997 graduate of Cedarville College with a degree in physical education, he was a student assistant at the school during his senior year and went on to acquire coaching experience at all levels of basketball.

Estep was the 8th grade coach at Cedarville Junior High School in 1996-97. He spent the next year at Clark County Christian High School in Kentucky where he was the varsity assistant boys basketball coach and the head coach in golf and tennis.

Estep spent the 1998-99 season as the junior varsity coach at Oak Hill (Ohio) High School. He held the same position in 1999-2000 at South Webster (Ohio) High School which is where he graduated from in 1993.

Estep comes from a rich basketball coaching heritage. His father, Dale, spent 27 years in the profession at Fairfield Union and South Webster high schools.

Estep also has a master's degree in education from Cedarville University that he earned in 2008. Pat and his wife, Melanie, reside in Cedarville with their three children: sons Isaiah, 11, and Grant, 8, as well as daughter, Merynn, 2.

Zimmy Nwogbo has been named the G-MAC Men's Basketball Athlete of the Week for the third time this year as an individual, and gives Cedarville its conference leading fifth AOTW this season.
